

Christian Union Church Parsonage 1023 East Main Road 1898

Parsonage for the Ministers of the Christian Union Church on Gould Anthony land
Construction Contract granted to Joseph Coggeshall in October of 1897

Pastors Occupying the Parsonage

- Henry W McCrone First to Occupy Parsonage
His youngest son Charles William McCrone born here
- Edward Hallet Macy 1901-1905
- Joseph Lambert 1906-1907
- David C Loucks 1909- 1911
Included in House Photo with wife Josephine Putman
- Albert Loucks 1911-1914
Served when Widowed
- Robert L Downing 1915 – 1917
Last Minister - His Residence Extended Beyond his Pastorate

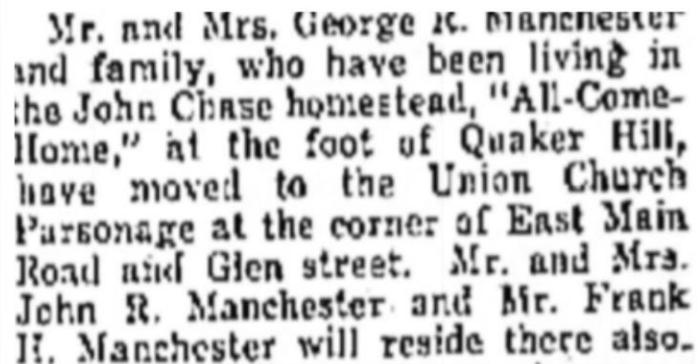

Private Residents Rented the Parsonage

1 April 1922

Newport Mercury

Manchester Brothers
(from 1922-1925)

- Mr. & Mrs. George Rogers Manchester
(1875-1932)
- Mr. & Mrs. John Rogers Manchester
(1876-1933)
- Mr. Frank Harold Manchester
(1887-1951)

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Manchester and family, who have been living in the John Chase homestead, "All-Come-Home," at the foot of Quaker Hill, have moved to the Union Church Parsonage at the corner of East Main Road and Glen street. Mr. and Mrs. John R. Manchester and Mr. Frank H. Manchester will reside there also.

Their parents were John R. Manchester & Ruth Marie Rogers
The family had previously traded in horses in Canada and the West
They had run the farm at St Mary's Church and
In 1920 they were the owners of Manchester's Store Newtown, Portsmouth