

St. Paul's Rectory
7 Church Lane
Built 1839

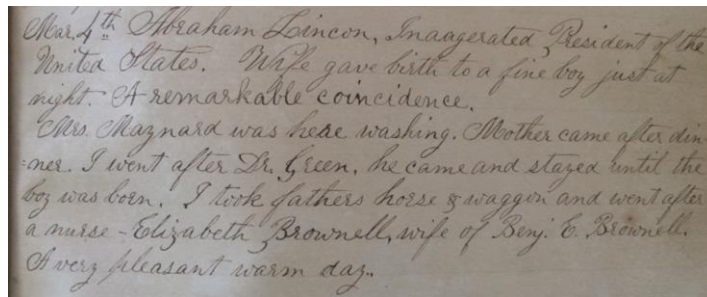

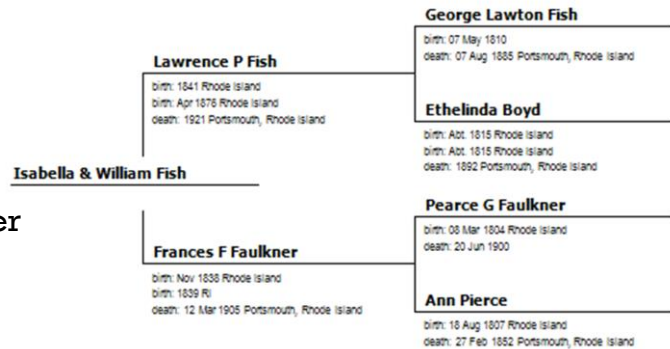

Built as a home for the Episcopal Church Rector it has been used as a Sunday school and also rented to private citizens and recently businesses

First Resident

Rev. Robert E. Northrum
 Rector St. Paul's Episcopal Church
 Died 1 year after construction was completed

Residents in 1930

- Fish Family rented for $6/month
 Isabella F Fish (1858-1935)
 Newtown Primary Teacher retired
 William Fish (1861-1958)
 Tinsmith at corner East Main & Dexter
- Sherman Family rented for $12/month
 Clarence William Sherman (1861-1933)
 His wife Mary O'Neal

Clarence "Willie" was son of David D. Shearman and Cynthia C Dixey
 David Durfee Shearman Diary Entry March 4, 1861

Thanks to the Preservation & Donation of Primary Documents by their Descendants,
 Mott, Thurston and Sherman Families
 Portsmouth Historical Society to able to Display
 The Newtown Primary School Registers
 The Photograph of the Tinsmith Shop formerly located at Dexter and East Main

The David Durfee Shearman Diaries and Ambrotypes